

Dr Geoffrey Batt - Profile Section

Geoff provides insightful analysis, strategic advice, and management services in complex scientific research programs delivering value in the mining and resource production sectors. His work is based on innovative problem solving, exceptional professionalism, and soft-power management honed by 20 years as a successful and respected research scientist and award-winning communicator. A trusted adviser to business and government agencies over many years. Geoff maintains a proud reputation for diplomacy, collegiality and problem-solving.

Specialties: Research management; Stakeholder engagement and liaison; Mineral systems analysis; Structural geology; Science communication; Board paper and Report writing; Editing

Geoff is the MRIWA representative on the PhD Support Panel; he is also an industry mentor for the Centre.

View Full ProfileLinkedIn