

Prof Mark Griffin - Profile Section

Professor Mark Griffin is Director of the Future of Work Institute (FOWI) in the Faculty of Business and Law. FOWI's mission is to support thriving people and organisations in the digital age; promoting productive and meaningful work as essential foundations of a healthy economy and society.

Mark is the Theme Leader for Translation Theme Four - Support the Organisation, supervising Research Fellow Eden Li.

Mark represents FOWI and Theme Four on the Strategic Risk and Reporting Board and Operating Committee.

View Full Profile

Research at Curtin