Research & Innovation Project of the Year-Postgraduate Tertiary Student Award

The untapped potential for Aquila's innovation has been recognised across the State with the technology winning the Research and Innovation Project of the Year at the 28th WAITTA INCITE Awards - WA's premier event for recognising and celebrating innovators in the Information and Communications Technology (ICT) industry.

Research & Innovation Project of the Year-Postgraduate Tertiary Student Award at the 28th WAITTA INCITE Awards. https://waitta.asn.au/programs/incite-awards/ https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=exaAqEDSD6A

Winner and National iAwards Finalists for Western Australia:

- Michael Stewart from The University of Western Australia for Aquila - Text Mining of Industry Logs https://inciteawards.org.au/wa-students-data-visualisation-technology-has-potential-to-save-lives-improve-traffic-unlock-many-discoveries/

Award Details

Dr Michael Stewart

Research Fellow

Theme 1
2019-09-16